

Safety Manager

vacancy

BONAIRE FOOD GROUP

Bonaire Food Group (BFG) is a wholesale company on Bonaire, Dutch Caribbean. The company is part of the Van den Tweel Group with its headquarters in Nijkerk, the Netherlands (www.vandentweelgroep.nl). BFG produces and distributes bread and has its own butchery. It delivers various other wholesale products to the biggest supermarkets on the island and also to many hotels, restaurants and other companies.

Bonaire Food Group and its customers demand high quality products. To ensure customer trust in the supply of safe food and drinks we are YUM certified. Our aim is to be FSSC 22000 certified as well. The FSSC 22000 Food Safety System Certification provides a framework for effectively managing our organisation's food safety responsibilities.

In order to maintain YUM certified and to achieve the FSSC 22000 certification we require an efficient and energetic individual to fill in the vacancy of Safety Manager.

The ideal candidate

- develops and implements programs such as YUM, HACCP, AVANDRA to further enhance food safety and better customer service
- is the key person for handling all impactful food safety issues experienced by the company
- trains management and associates in food safety certification
- assists the management in evaluating data and trends regarding food safety compliance, drives the execution of food safety strategy and responds to urgent food safety issues
- has a diploma or similar qualification of Quality Auditor or the ability to become certified
- conducts facility food safety audits and manages any external audits
- monitors, documents and reports all product finalizations to ensure compliance with YUM and other food safety protocols.
- works together with all departments regarding food safety policies and concerns
- develops and provides trainings for food safety and quality requirements
- develops and maintains documentation such as SOPs, policies and procedures at the DC level
- has a hands-on mentality
- has excellent writing and verbal communication skills in Dutch and English
- has strong computer skills: Microsoft Office software (MS Word, Excel, Outlook)

The company offers the successful candidate

- a challenging job in a dynamic company on a the beautiful island of Bonaire
- a labour contract for a fixed period
- a competitive remuneration package based on qualification and working experience.

If you are interested in this job, please forward your application with resume by e-mail to Jeroen Noels, general manager Bonaire Food Group, Kaya Industria Pariba, Kralendijk, Bonaire, e-mail: jnoels@bfg-bonaire.com with a copy to: info@vandentweelgroep.nl. If you want any more information about the job, you can call him at the following telephone number: 717-6446

VAN DEN TWEEL GROEP